PRESIDENT'S CORNER

With Autumn now upon us and shorter daylight hours, there's always a warm and friendly welcome awaiting you at the Howick Club.

The Easter Sunday breakfast was a real family time with Easter buns and eggs a plenty for the kids, followed by the Fantasyland Disco.

The Ladies Housie Fundraiser was a good success with a generous donation being raised for Dementia New Zealand.

With the Next Step Retirement Living presentation at the Club's Fencibles group being a great success, we may well see a further presentation organised offering independent retirement living, along with legal advice. The Andy Wonder Magic Show was amazing with the kids shrieks of laughter filling the Club.

The Beegees Tribute Show and the Live Comedy Show, also real winners. The Annual Amateur Karaoke Competition is under way with a great first night start, but there's still time to warm up the vocal cords and enter. Calling all guys and girls who like fishing. The Fishing section offers great camaraderie and fun, and fish too. Amazing days spent fishing followed by the weigh in, BBQ and lots of fun plus all proceeds donated to charity. Now Dad and Kids, why don't you treat Mum to a Special Surprise Mother's Day Lunch or Dinner at the Howick Club on Mother's Day Sunday 12th May. With the Shania Twain Tribute, the Jordan Luck Band and the popular Sip and

FENCIBLES GROUP - GUEST SPEAKER

We are very pleased to be welcoming back Warren Yardley presenting ... "Teaching English to Chinese in Shanghai". This will be a powerpoint presentation. Warren who is no stranger to our Fencibles group drew good numbers for his previous powerpoint presentations on Inner Auckland, its secret passages, it's history, outrage and various earlier incidents. Warren is now back to tell of further experiences. Don't miss this very interesting and entertaining Guest Speaker.

Bring along a friend. Club Members and their guests welcome.
