PRESIDENT'S CORNER

April was yet another eventful month at the Club, offering so much variety for all.

The Pat Prendergast Memorial Trophy Fishing competition saw a great and sunny day for the fishing section with the proceeds of the Fishing Auction benefiting the Breast Cancer Foundation. Congratulations to the fishing section for putting on this event.

The annual Amateur Karaoke competition saw an eventful start with 22 entries over the first two rounds. Come along and sing or support, it's a great night out. The annual Classic Car Show with 64 entries was an amazing event, that was open to the public with next years promising to offer wider facilities. A very generous donation benefited the Gut Cancer Charity. The Easter Family Breakfast and Kids Egg hunt was great fun and as popular as ever.

With the 25th April ANZAC Day approaching and the May 7th Fencibles meeting at the Club featuring the presentation of how the bravery of New Zealand Soldiers saved the town of Le Quesnoy in Northern France from the Germans, all Howick Club Members and their guest are welcome. May also sees Mother's Day, a very busy day in the restaurant, so please do book early.

There is Family Bingo a real family fun winner the last time held, then there's Sip and Paint and also coming is Drag Bingo and so much to enjoy.

On Sunday 25 May we have the Howick Club AGM when we hope all Howick Club, Full Members will plan to come along.

We really are spoilt for choice at the Howick Club whether its shows, sport, family fun or a quiet drink, just enjoy your club.

The Howick Club ... Club to be Proud of.
